
Highs and Lows

- 1) Which of the following calculations gives the highest value; the square root of 81 or the cube of two?
the square root of 81
- 2) Which month has the highest number of daylight hours in a single day
June
- 3) Which are the three highest mountains in the United Kingdom
Snowdon, ScarFell Pike, Ben Nevis
- 4) Which is the highest temperature; 75 degrees Fahrenheit or 20 degrees centigrade
75 degrees Fahrenheit
- 5) Which bottle will hold highest amount of liquid, a 2 pinter or a 1 litre
2 pinter
- 6) A building with a floor area of 15 squ metres has a volume of 180 cubic metres. How high is it 12M
- 7) A scout is 1.4 metres high, but a sign on a fairground ride says he must be 4 foot. Is he big enough
Yes, 4 foot = 1.2
- 8) The speed of a river is lowest in the centre or at the edges
edges
- 9) What is the lowest rank in the army private
- 10) Heights on a map are measured from the lowest point. What is it
Sea level
- 11) Which is of the lowest weight 1Kg or 2 Pounds
2 pounds
- 12) What is the lowest number, which is a factor of both 18 and 39 and is higher than 1 3
- 13) Where is the highest building in the world
Kuala Lumpur, 450M
- 14) Which country has the highest difference between high and low tide
Japan, 10M
- 15) What is the lowest speed limit on a public highway 20 mph
- 16) What is the lowest number of people allowed in a football team for the game to continue eight

- 17) What is the lowest depth of tread allowed on a car tyre
1.4mm across 70% of the tyre
- 18) What is the minimum distance at which you must be able to read a car number plate at to pass your driving test
25M
- 19) What are the minimum length and width for an international football pitch 110 x 70 yards or 100 x 64 M
- 20) What is meant by the lowest form of wit
Sarcasm

Highs and Lows

- 21) Which of the following calculations gives the highest value; the square root of 81 or the cube of two?
- 22) Which month has the highest number of daylight hours in a single day
- 23) Which are the three highest mountains in the United Kingdom
- 24) Which is the highest temperature; 75 degrees Fahrenheit or 20 degrees centigrade
- 25) Which bottle will hold highest amount of liquid, a 2 pinter or a 1 litre
- 26) A building with a floor area of 15 squ metres has a volume of 180 cubic metres. How high is it
- 27) A scout is 1.4 metres high, but a sign on a fairground ride says he must be 4 foot. Is he big enough
- 28) The speed of a river is lowest in the centre or at the edges
- 29) What is the lowest rank in the army
- 30) Heights on a map are measured from the lowest point. What is it
- 31) Which is of the lowest weight 1Kg or 1 Pound
- 32) What is the lowest number, which is a factor of both 18 and 39 and is higher than 1
- 33) Where is the highest building in the world
- 34) Which country has the highest difference between high and low tide

- 35) What is the lowest speed limit on a public highway
- 36) What is the lowest number of people allowed in a football team for the game to continue
- 37) What is the lowest depth of tread allowed on a car tyre
- 38) What is the minimum distance at which you must be able to read a car number plate at to pass your driving test
- 39) What are the minimum length and width for an international football pitch
- 40) What is meant by the lowest form of whit